Bank's Fiscal Reports 'Ambiguous, Misleading'

By DON HANRIGHT
Canadian Press Staff Writer

EDMONTON (CP)—Two Carleton University economists charged today that the Bank of Canada has not reported accurately on its own policy. They contend the bank's recent annual reports contain "casualties, ambiguous and misleading."

Professors H. Scott Gordon and Lawrence A. Read argue that the "overriding objective" of the reports has been to "disarm public opinion" by minimizing the central bank's role in unpopular monetary developments, and exaggerating its role in popular ones.

In a joint paper read by Prof. Gordon to the annual meeting here of the Canadian Political Science Association, the economists say the bank is constituted to be above politics and cannot afford to use such tactics "common among Canadian politicians."

FIGURE EXAGGERATED
They say the bank's 1957 annual report shows an expansion of money supply of $436,000,000 in the last five months of last year—a figure "inflated by the choice of definition and exaggerated by the method of measurement."

The Ottawa economists said that federal government deposits with the chartered banks were excluded from the 1956 annual report but included in the 1957 report, thus adding $275,000,000 to money supply without explaining or justifying the change or even noting that it was made.

The paper adds that another $100,000,000 of the money supply increase is accounted for by the method of calculating 1957 supply on the basis of two month-end-to-month averages of the 1956 report made computations in terms of the averages of the 1957 annual report of the two months.

NEGLIGIBLE INCREASE

Commented the professors: "If government deposits are excluded, and the broader basis of comparison is used, the increase in the money supply during the latter part of 1957 changes from the $486,000,000 shown in the Bank of Canada's report to $115,000,000, an expansion of the negligible magnitude of approximately 400 per cent over the five-month period."

Professors Scott and Read also dealt in their 7,000-word paper with the issue following publication of the 1957 annual report—the question of whether the central bank's policy and monetary events from mid-1955 to mid-1957 could be termed "tight money."

They quoted Governor James E. Coyne as saying: "To the extent that the phrase (tight money policy) might be taken to imply a contraction in the availability of money it is not applicable. In this sense of the phrase there has never been a 'tight money policy' in Canada since the establishment of the central bank 23 years ago."

$27 MILLION POST OFFICE (ORIGINAL COST $1.5) TO OPEN

WINNIPEG (CP)—A new, $12,000,000 post office will be opened officially here Friday more than 12 years after the federal government first decided to build it.

The size of the building has increased from four storeys to 10 since the building was first contemplated. Some estimates of the final cost including furnishings have gone as high as $15,000,000. When plans for the building were first announced in 1946 a government spokesman estimated the cost at $1,500,000 before any plans were drawn.

Postmaster-General Hamilton and Trade Minister Churchill will join in an opening ceremony that will recall the first post office in Western Canada at Ross House in Winnipeg, across the street from the present CPR station.

CANDIDATE ENLIVEN DULL CAMPAIGN

'People Don't Care'

WINNIPEG (CP)—Talk of parachute jumps and hopping old hens with cold feet has enlivened the generally dull campaign leading up to the Manitoba general election June 16.

The campaign has been so tame that Maurice H. Gutnik, Progressive Conservative candidate in the Seven Oaks constituency in Winnipeg, said he would make a parachute jump into suburban West Kildonan to stir up interest.

"Things could hardly be duller," he said. "The people just don't care."

However, Mr. Gutnik ran into technical difficulties in staging his name-dropping stunt. And party leader Duff Roblin was reported to have told him that he needed bright young men too much to have them leaping out of airplanes.

CCF Premier T. C. (Tommy) Douglas of Saskatchewan, campaigning for his Manitoba friends brought the old hens into the picture. Bouncing from one foot to another on a platform at Beausejour, Man., he said he was behaving like a Canadian voter—like an old hen standing in the snow.

The voters had been standing on one foot and then on another—first on a Liberal government and then on a Conservative government and back again—until they "went over to Diefenbaker" and they're going to have the coldest foot they've had in 50 years.

The showdown for prospective candidates came on official nomination day Monday. As expected, the Liberal-Progressive government supporters and the Progressive Conservatives each nominated candidates in 56 of the 57 ridings.

They did not oppose Mayor Stephen Juba of Winnipeg, running for re-election in the Logan constituency of Winnipeg as an independent with opposition only from the CCF.

FAIR TO SELL BONDS
The CCF named 43 candidates and the Social Credit party only 13, in contrast with the 42 Social Crediters who contested the last general election in 1953.

One event that appeared likely to stir up political fireworks was the word that James Enterprises Limited, backers of a new horse racing track in the Winnipeg area, had not managed to sell all of $600,000 worth of government-guaranteed bonds.

The provincial government, despite heated criticism from the opposition on moral and economic grounds, agreed to buy the bonds if they were not sold by June 1. After the deadline passed Provincial Treasurer C. E. Greenlaw said negotiations still were underway to sell the debentures.

PEACE IN ALGERIA IS DE GAULLE'S FIRST GOAL

With legal power to rule France by decree for the next six months, Premier de Gaulle will now attempt to restore peace in Algeria. He flew to Algiers where he conferred with the military junta which defied ex-Premier Pflimlin on May 13. Two of the leaders with whom he conferred, Gen. Raoul Salan, left, and Gen. Jacques Massu, right, are shown as they attended the funeral of one of the rebels who died fighting in Tunisia.

Workers May Reply To Security Allegations

OTTAWA (CP)—Justice Minister Fulton has indicated that in future government employees likely will be given a chance to answer allegations against them on security grounds.

He referred in the Commons Wednesday to the recent case of a CBC employee refused promotion in the government-owned corporation on security grounds.

185 Pound Calf Born in Ontario

WOODSTOCK, Ont. (CP)—A six-day-old bull calf will go into the record books as the largest Holstein calf to be born and to live in Canada.

The Holstein Friesian Association of Canada at Brantford, Ont., has confirmed that the calf, which weighed about 185 pounds at birth, is the largest it knows of. Average weight of a calf at birth is between 60 and 100 pounds.

The calf, still nameless, was born last Thursday on the farm of Leen Donker in East Zorra Township, northwest of here.

CANADIAN MANUFACTURERS MEET

Soviet Union Steals Convention Spotlight

By DAVE OANCIA
Canadian Press Staff Writer

MONTREAL (CP)—Soviet Russia Wednesday stole the spotlight during one of the sessions of the annual general meeting of the Canadian Manufacturers' Association—Canada's "parliament of industry."

Questions asked during a discussion period following talks on the dynamics of world trade were related almost entirely to the colossus of the Communist world.

Wiremen Seek To Prosecute Contractors

VANCOUVER (CP)—The inside wiremen's section of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers have applied to the Labor Relations Board for leave to prosecute contractors who have locked them out.

The application, if successful, would allow the union to move in the courts to have the lockout termed illegal. It alleges "improper notice" of the lockout and "discrimination."

The union originally demanded a 60-cent-an-hour increase over its present $2.99 an hour. A conciliation board recommended no increase.

The wiremen have reduced their demands but the contractors are holding to the conciliation report.

The Associated Electrical Contractors called a lockout while negotiations were continuing. The union has not held a strike vote.

The Vancouver Electrical Association starts negotiations with the electricians Friday.

R. K. Gervin, who has been appointed by both associations to negotiate for them said he doesn't think wage increases will be considered by the Vancouver group.

Mr. McLachlan, the executive vice-president of A. V. Roe (Canada) Limited, said Canadians must make far greater efforts to understand the Soviet Union and Russian developments.

The threat from the Soviet economic offensive cropped up several times during the sessions of the more than 1,300 industrial leaders.

In his report to a combined luncheon and business meeting, retiring CMA President H. V. Lush described Russia as "a new and dramatic challenger."

"We must assume that Russia is ready, as a matter of deliberate policy, to undercut sensitive markets in many goods and materials without concern for costs of production and marketing in order to take up the excess of Russian resource production which was forced because of military demands," said Mr. Lush.

FANTASTIC RESOURCES

Mr. McLachlan said Russia has such "fantastic resources" of her own that it made little difference whether or not she could obtain raw materials from the Western world.

"Today we are not faced with bows and arrows, guns or even hydrogen bombs. In my opinion we are faced with an economic war—a very unique challenge between two systems."

General Alfred Gruenther, former supreme Allied commander in Europe, told a dinner meeting Wednesday night that the future leadership of the U.S. must be based on "more solid stuff" than was shown when the Russians launched their first two earth satellites.

He added he would like to have seen the U.S. assume its heavy burden of leadership at the time of the launching "in a much calmer way."

Neighbors complained because the dog's owner, Mrs. Nancy Ewing, 58, blindfolded the animal when she took her for walks. Humane officers told her Wednesday "no more blindfolds."

"I didn't want King Boy to see all the evil there is in the world," Mrs. Ewing said. "I didn't want him to see bad people."

BLINDFOLDED DOG MUST FACE LIFE

PASADENA, Calif. (AP)—A King Boy, a German shepherd, has to face life today just like the rest of us.

Neighbors complained because the dog's owner, Mrs. Nancy Ewing, 58, blindfolded the animal when she took her for walks. Humane officers told her Wednesday "no more blindfolds."

Offer of Weekend Concerts

Summerland Town Band is looking for a sponsor to underwrite a series of summer concerts in Penticton's Gyro band-shell.

Responding to a suggestion made in the Herald recently, the group has stated a willingness to perform in Penticton at weekends if someone will pick up the expense tab.

The band is reluctant to travel here and take up a collection during the performance. "It's just something we don't like doing," is the way a spokesman for the musical group explains it. "But if the Board of Trade or a service club is willing to see that we get expenses for travelling down here, we are quite willing to play at weekends. We think we could provide a good program for tourists and residents."

It seems to us that this presents an attractive opportunity to Penticton.

The cost of bringing the band from Summerland would be relatively light. The value of such weekend concerts is undisputed.

Teenagers Lead the Way

Penticton teenagers, a pleasant enough body of young people in an age where the word delinquency all too often rears its head, have further enhanced their reputation this week by donating $100 towards the cost of erecting and equipping a school for retarded children.

Teen-Town, official donors of the gift, have thus set an example the more affluent members of our community might follow. They have also, as a youth so often does, shown the way to get things done.

If we adult members of Penticton show half as much zeal as these young people, the Kinsmen backed project to provide proper facilities for the instruction of unfortunate youngsters will be a great success.

Disquieting News Stories

Disquieting Feature of views voiced nowadays by labor union officials is the increasing frequency of attacks on the judiciary. Unrestrained criticism of the three senior judges who served as members of the Kellock Royal Commission in the recent diesel fireman dispute is one of the most glaring examples of this sort of thing.

Now from Winnipeg comes word that the Labor Council in that city has been directing a barrage of criticism against judges who grant restraining orders and court injunctions against picketing. Winnipeg Labor Council's executive secretary, R. B. Russell, is quoted as saying that in recent years "most vicious injunctions" have been issued against labor and that a campaign should be launched to curb the power of the judiciary.

Talk of this sort is as dangerous as it is unwarranted. What Winnipeg Labor Council officials seem to want is even greater immunity from proper legal restraints than unionism already enjoys.

Grammatical Spoofing

For as many years as we care to remember there always has been someone suggesting that Shakespeare didn't write the plays we ascribe to him, or that his message isn't good for today's gentle readers, or something else. Now it is his grammar.

But this latest barb against the venerable playwright is largely in spoof. The spring issue of Green Witch, humor magazine of Greenwich, Connecticut, High School, in substance asks: If Shakespeare had been subjected to the close scrutiny of English teachers—or, say, copy editors—how would he have fared?

Take Hamlet's soliloquy, for instance. This familiar passage probably would not have rated more than a C-minus, say the high-school editors. "To be, or not to be" they term "confusing," and ask, "To be what?" Citing faulty punctuation, redundancy, run-on sentences, archaic usages, and a whole string of other language abuses, these young grammarians print the soliloquy with corrections to show what could have happened if the Dane's brooding had been graded in 1958.

Shakespeare has weathered too many other storms not to be able to take this gentle spoofing in stride. Grammar notwithstanding, we'll go on reading the Stratford bard for the sheer beauty of his language.

Governor Returns With Bahama Island Plan

NASSAU, The Bahamas (Reuters)—Governor Sir Rymor Arthur is expected to return here from London soon with further proposals for the long-range political and economic development of these troubled British resort islands off the coast of Florida.

Most residents of the islands—hit by a paralyzing general strike in January—are confident the colonial office is taking a continued interest in their affairs. They note their governor flew to London early in May for more talks on Bahamian problems.

NORMAL ON SURFACE

Life here is back to normal—on the surface, at least—following the general strike.

The labor trouble brought the British colonial secretary, Alan Lennox-Boyd, here for face-to-face talks with Arthur and political and labor leaders.

The important tourist industry came to a sudden halt when hotel workers walked off their jobs five months ago. Since then it has gained steadily.

However, the visitor count is still below last year's figures. There also has been a corresponding decline in revenue. Local observers believe much of this is due to the American recession.

Politically, the situation is far less simple, even though Lennox-Boyd's visit went a long way toward easing tensions and restoring hope for acceptable solutions to most of the colony's pressing problems.

REFORMS URGED

When Lennox-Boyd arrived here

in April, he found inadequate and antiquated labor legislation which made no provision for machinery to mediate disputes and which withheld official recognition from hotel and agricultural workers' unions.

Lennox-Boyd also took a first-hand look at the Bahamas' ancient electoral system. It limits the franchise to males with property and gives more than half of the colony's population centred in New Providence Island—site of this capital—only eight representatives in the 29-member House of Assembly.

The other representatives are from sparsely populated outer islands. Before he left for London Lennox-Boyd urged that before the year's end legislation should be passed to provide:

1. Labor laws in line with modern times.
2. Universal adult male suffrage (the was not satisfied there was sufficient there was sufficient demand for female suffrage).
3. Abolition of the company vote, in which business firms participate in the electoral process.
4. Reduction of the plural vote to two (hitherto a man could vote in all electoral districts where he owned or rented property).
5. Four additional seats in the Assembly for New Providence.

OTTAWA REPORT

Marriage Bureau Turns the Trick

By PATRICK NICHOLSON
Special Correspondent to the Herald

OTTAWA—Clifford Bentley was not fazed by the shortage of jobs greeting him when he arrived in this "land of opportunity" six months ago.

This immigrant, aged in his late thirties, had sold up his own dentures plant in England, and brought his bride to establish a new and freer life in Canada's capital city. After three months spent looking for non-existent job opportunities, and chasing will-o'-the-wisps at the employment office, both the enthusiasm and the resources of the Bentleys were running low.

Then Mr. Bentley had the idea that to change the old saying—that he could build a type of mousetrap which nobody else is building, the world would beat a path to his office door.

Describing this novel Bentley bait, intriguing advertisements began to appear regularly in the "personal" section in local newspapers.

"Why be lonely, unhappy, unmarried? Open the door to happiness. All enquiries strictly confidential. Apply to the Confidential Marriage Bureau, 5 Sparks Street, Ottawa."

This advertisement was repeated daily. The only way to establish a business is to keep on advertising, says Mr. Bentley.

RESPONSE GREW FAST

At first replies were few, but very soon swelling numbers of clients were writing or telephoning or making personal visits to the quiet fourth floor office. Most enquiries come from Western Ontario and the Montreal area; some from as far afield as Hope-dale in Labrador, Courtenay in B.C. and Tulsa in Oklahoma.

Marrying men and vocable women in Saskatoon, Winnipeg and Halifax, as well as in Chatham, Sudbury and Oshawa, are seeking a mate through the Cupid of Ottawa. But as yet surprisingly few of Ottawa's surplus G-girls have sought his aid.

Business is so brisk that Marriage Counsellor Bentley, and his life and love partner Mary, are planning to open branch offices of their love business in Toronto and Winnipeg shortly.

"Some of the loveliest Canadian couples happen to be rather shy," explains Cupid Clifford. "My clients are nearly all professional or white collar workers. They sincerely want to meet the right person, but they are the victims of the lack of meeting facilities, and of the imbalance of the sexes in so many communities. Such clients, and the mate each wants to meet, are not the type which can effect an introduction through the sidewalk wolf-whistle."

Doctors, scientists, senior civil servants, business women and nurses are among his clients. One would-be bride is a millionaire.

Another is one of the most beautiful girls in her mid-twenties whom world-traveller Bentley has ever seen; yet her father brought her from one of Canada's largest cities, and offer a premium of 25,000 per cent above the usual Bentley registration fee of $25 if he could find her a suitable husband. Mr. Bentley accepted the client, but rejected the bonus.

NO NONSENSE OR TRICKS

"This is a sincere marriage bureau, run on honest and strictly confidential lines," emphasizes its founder. "It is not a lonely hearts club."

Mr. Bentley prepares the path carefully, and then personally effects the possibility-laden introduction as each well-chosen couple meet for the first time in his office. Last Saturday, his clients included a man from Niagara and a girl from Montreal, who travelled to Ottawa at Mr. Bentley's suggestion to meet each other in the sincere hope and belief that wedding bells will ring for them a few months hence.

Although up to sixty enquiries reach his office each day, only one has been what he considers flippant. An unemployed man stamped into his office, slapped down the unemployment insurance money he had just drawn, and announced: "There's my registration fee. I have no job, and I want a wife who has one."

"If you like people, and can gain their confidence, and possess the broad vision which comes from travel and experience, it is readily possible to imagine any person in the role of spouse," Mr. Bentley explained to me. "So careful though, and a selection as wide as I am able to offer, will match a mate with the perfect combination of personal qualities, interests and hobbies." That is the formula which is bringing success to the Cupid of Ottawa, and happiness to many previously lonely people.

Don't Go Swimming With Wax in Your Ears

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.
Now hear this, as they say in the Navy:

Get the wax out of your ears before you go swimming this summer.

This may seem like silly advice for swimmers. You probably expected me to caution you not to go swimming for at least an hour after eating and not to swim when overheated.

This is valuable advice, of course, but most of you already are well aware of these dangers.

SERIOUS PROBLEM

This wax business is something else again. You probably never gave it a thought. But wax in the ears, particularly in only one ear, can be a serious problem to a swimmer. When one ear is clogged with wax, you see, dizziness is likely to occur.

It's practically impossible, as you well know, to keep water out of your ears while swimming. The cold water can easily reach the labyrinth of the unclogged ear, but it cannot reach that of the wax-blocked ear.

UNBALANCED REACTIONS

Thus, two different unbalanced reactions are set up. The result is apt to be dizziness and inability to tell the position of the body because the sense of equilibrium is controlled in the ears' labyrinths.

It's fairly easy to see that under such conditions a swimmer might panic and even drown.

This is just one more reason why all swimmers should follow the example set by the Boy Scouts of America and recommended by the National Safety Council.

BUDDY SYSTEM

The "buddy system," developed and fostered by the Boy Scouts, can do a great deal toward helping to reduce the 6,000 drownings that occur annually in the United States. It's a simple system: swim no farther than 15 feet from a companion.

Keep in close contact with your companion and every so often—the Boy Scouts do it every five to eight minutes—look around for your friend and make sure he is safe.

QUESTION AND ANSWER

P.D.: What is sclera derma? Answer: Sclera derma is a disease of the skin, the cause of which is unknown. The skin gradually becomes tough, rigid and hard to move. It is usually smooth and shiny. The skin may become so hard as to make the moving of muscles difficult. This disease is more common in women.

Until recently, no treatment has proved of too great value.

Marlene Kinney, Robert McElroy Principals in Pretty Ceremony

Fragrant pastel colored roses and peonies banked the altar in the Pentiction United Church to set the scene for the pretty May wedding Saturday evening when Rev. Ernest Rands solemnized the marriage vows of Marlene Ann Kinney and Neil Robert McElroy, Jr. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. James L. Kinney and the groom is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Neil R. McElroy, all of this city.

Given in marriage by her father in the double-ring rites, the bride was charming in an original model gown of bouffant nylon net fashioned on graceful lines to floor-length. The full skirt, worn over taffeta and crinolines, was enhanced with side flounces defined by wide lace edging which also outlined the deep V neckline of the molded net bodice.

She wore shirred nylon mitts styled in above-the-elbow-length, and the groom's gift, a single strand pearl necklace. Her chapel veil of French illusion, edged in lace, misted from a pearl and sequin tiara and she carried a cascading bouquet of deep-red roses and stephanotis to complement her ensemble.

A bouffant frock of pale blue nylon net, and lace fashioned in floor-length was chosen by Miss Anne Close, the bridesmaid. She wore a hair bandeau of stiffened lace and tiny blue rosettes and carried a colonial nosegay formed of pink and white carnations.

Morris Thompson was best man and the groom's brother, Leigh McElroy, ushered. Mrs. Monica Craig Fisher, who was wedding organist, played the carillon chimes during the signing of the register.

A reception followed at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Tim McCarthy, Skaha Lake, where guests were received by the young principals and their parents. Mrs. Kinney was smartly attired in an aqua cut-linen sheath with white accessories and pink carnation corsage, while the groom's mother wore a softly colored blue sheath with white accessories. Her corsage was styled of pink roses.

R. V. White proposed the toast to the bride and read several messages received by the young couple from friends and relatives in Montreal, Edmonton and Barrhead, the former home of the bride's family.

The silver appointed reception table, covered with a Madeira lace cloth, was centred by a three-tiered wedding cake and antique silver candelabra holding white tapers. A single white rose in a silver vase placed beside the decorated cake provided an interesting focal accent to the artistic table arrangement.

Mrs. McElroy travelled in a dusky blue suit with white accessories and red rose corsage when the newly married couple left on the honeymoon trip to Spokane and Okanagan Valley centres. They will take up residence in Pentiction on their return.

The groom's grandmother, Mrs. Sam McElroy of Vancouver, and his uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. T. E. Leigh, and Cindy, West Vancouver, were among out of town guests. Others were Mr. and Mrs. Mel Lavold, Lloydminster, Saskatchewan; Mr. and Mrs. M. Thompson, Okanagan Falls; and Mr. and Mrs. Vansantan, Keremeos.

Two Alberta Women Win Sewing Contest

Sewing champions among the almost 1,000 home sewers from the prairie provinces and British Columbia who competed in the Western Regional Singer contest are: Mrs. Daria Havelock of Calgary, and Mrs. Kay Lymburner of Grande Prairie. The latter was winner in the newly-created "Young Homemaker" division restricted to women 18-25.

To compete for a $25,000 grand prize, Mrs. Havelock will attend the New York Singer Sew-Off which climaxes the Third Annual $125,000 Singer contest. There she will pit her sewing skill against that of 34 other regional winners from Canada, the United States, Hawaii and Alaska.

Mrs. Havelock, like the other finalists, will fashion a dress for a professional model. This she will do in a glass-paneled specially equipped individual sewing room at B. Altman and Co., the Fifth Avenue Department store. Mrs. Havelock will choose her own pattern, fabric and model.

The dress that won for her not only a sewing machine but the opportunity to compete in the New York "Sew-Off" was a semi-chemise ensemble in worsted wool crepe. Cost was $35.00. Mrs. Havelock, the wife of a lawyer and the mother of two young boys, sews for economy and pleasure.

Grande Prairie's Kay Lymburner will be represented at the "Sew-Off" by her regional prize-winning dress, a sleeveless polka dotted sheath. The mother of two young girls, Mrs. Lymburner has been sewing for the past three years.

Mrs. Lymburner's dress will be judged with 34 other "Young Homemakers" garments, all regional prize-winners in that division. Four prizes will be awarded of $5,000, $2,500, $1,500 and $1,000 respectively. Winners will be invited to New York to accept the prize money.

Mrs. Havelock, competing in the open division, stands to win a first prize of $25,000; a second of $10,000; a third of $5,000; a fourth of $2,500 or a fifth of $1,500. All thirty runners-up will receive $250 each.

CHIC ADJUSTABLE JEWELS

BY TRACY ADRIAN

Ropes of pearls, so right for the unfitted silhouette, take on new guises of elegance this summer. This pearl sautoir, with its pearl-heaped slide, is a shiftable way to high or low necklace clasping. A huge baroque pearl topped with a cluster of icy rhinestones adds a lavish finishing touch to each end of the strand. Matching rhinestone clusters give mobility to the double-strand bracelet of milky pearls. At the ears, dramatically long pendants of pearls and rhinestones quiver gracefully.

Potluck Supper by Legion Auxiliary

Thirty-five members of the Ladies' Auxiliary to Branch 40, Canadian Legion, were present for the potluck supper and auction sale held prior to the June meeting in the Legion hall. Proceeds from the sale will be applied to the auxiliary's charitable program.

Vice-president Mrs. Ed Amos presided when the meeting dealt with plans for the annual pie sale to be held at the Super-Valu store July 12 under the convener-ship of Mrs. John Lawson, and the IOOF convention banquet June 12 when the auxiliary will cater with Mrs. Harold Green-slade as convener.

Mrs. Shirley Moline and Mrs. Helen Nelson will be tea hostesses at Senior House on June 15 and the hospital and home visiting for the month of June will be by Mrs. P. F. Eraut, Mrs. Amos, Mrs. Jim Robb and Mrs. Wilfred Gougeon.

Delegates to the zone meeting to be held at Summerland June 22 are auxiliary president Mrs. Graham Kincaid and Mrs. G. W. Bolton.

Prior to the business meeting Mrs. Norman Burgoyne was initiated into the Legion Ladies' Auxiliary.

A "Bon Voyage" gift will be sent to Mrs. William Lynch, a past-president of the L.A. who is leaving this week to spend a holiday in England.

The auxiliary's next meeting will be held in September following a summer recess.

AROUND TOWN

Summer Recess for Past Noble Grands

Mrs. Harold Doherty of Trout Creek Point, Summerland, entertained the Past Noble Grands Club of Redland Rebekah Lodge, No. 12, at the June meeting, the final before a summer recess.

President Mrs. Frank Taylor conducted the short business meeting which dealt with plans for a card party October 7 and regular monthly reports.

Mrs. P. E. Eraut, convener of the club's work with the children's ward at the Pentiction Hospital, was instructed to renew subscriptions to the four kiddies' magazines when they expire.

A pleasant social hour prior to refreshments was highlighted with a contest arranged by Mrs. Jack Carter. The prizes were won by Mrs. George Street and Mrs. Clair Baker.

The evening's hostesses were Mrs. Taylor, Mrs. George Morrison and Mrs. Jack Nevins.

Mrs. Arthur Turner, West Summerland, invited the members to hold their first meeting of the fall at her home September 2.

Mr. and Mrs. William Lynch left today for a holiday visit in England.

Mrs. N. Z. Spears has returned home after attending the biennial conference of Women's Institutes of B.C. held at UBC May 27 to 29 and the one-day leadership course May 26. Mrs. Spears, who was the official delegate from the Pentiction WI, spent several days visiting her sister, Mrs. Owen Lauritzen, prior to returning home. While visiting with her sister, who is active in women's work with the Shaughnessy United Church, Mrs. Spears was a guest at the federation's centennial luncheon Tuesday and also attended a circle meeting on Monday.

Highlighting the monthly meeting of the Women's Christian Temperance Union was the report submitted by Mrs. James Meldrum who attended the provincial conference of the WCTU at Vancouver as the local delegate.

President Mrs. L. F. Deringer, who presided at the well-attended

HOUSEHOLD HINT

If your child balks at hand-washing before meals, try giving him a "finger bowl" of warm sudsy water at the table to use before and after eating. If washing is made a game, he'll enjoy it.

Other business dealt with the appointment of committee conveners to be in charge of the tea party scheduled for August 10 honoring pioneer residents during Naramata's centennial celebrations. The tea, being sponsored by the WI, will be held in the gardens at the Robinson home, one of the first permanent buildings erected in this community approximately fifty years ago.

Mrs. C. K. Raitt was appointed official hostess while other members heading committees are: Mrs. Donald Salting, refreshments; Mrs. W. A. Ritchie, entertainment; Mrs. Stuart Berry, chairs; Mrs. Phillip Rounds, tables; Mrs. C. P. Salting, china. Members will be in charge of serving the guests.

Mrs. W. A. Ritchie was chosen to succeed Mrs. Crawford English who tendered her resignation as WI treasurer.

Following adjournment refreshments were served by Mrs. Gawne with the assistance of Mrs. L. E. Williams and Mrs. W. T. Gawne.

PETER TOMLIN'S SPORTS DIARY

The Penticton Red Sox baseball club will try something new tomorrow night.

Their game at King's Park against the Summerland Macs has been set for 9 o'clock instead of the usual starting time of 8. Club officials feel that this move will give more people a chance to attend the game.

On Sunday, the Red Sox will entertain the Vernon Clippers in an Okanagan Mainline Senior Baseball League encounter. The Sox need a win badly and they will be going all out to make the northerners feel not-so-much at home.

It will be the second appearance in Penticton this season for the Clippers. In the opening game of the season, they dropped a 8-2 decision to Penticton in a game at King's Park.

While you're enjoying the present summer sunshine, Penticton Vees' hockey executive is already thinking of fall days and the opening practice sessions.

Big item on their present program is the hockey auction to be held in July. Contributions for sale are needed right now and the process of getting them to the auction spot is as simple as dialing your phone.

If you have anything saleable, call Vet's Taxi and arrangements will be made to pick up your goods. And remember, a good hockey team costs money, so don't just sit back and get set for a grumbling session after the season opens. The hockey club needs your support as much in these days of preparation as it does during actual games.

And a further note. Never forget that Penticton needs a good hockey club. Part of the responsibility rests with you.

Further activity from hockey's ivory tower tells us that applications for the vacant coaching job are now coming in.

Dealing in hockey coaches is almost as confidential these days as dealing in Sputniks, so no names are available for release yet. But the executive does say, and this is a quote: "We have several good prospects in the offing."

Let's hope it isn't too long before they can tell us just who of the several will be taking the helm.

One thing about the present executive, they don't intend to wait until the last few weeks before the season opener before they start their membership drive.

Membership tickets are already on sale from any one of the club's executive. And if you can't remember who they are you can get the all important tickets from Archie Mosdell at the CPR Telegraph office.

Do it now.

Two final notes.

Negotiations have opened with the parks commission to try and work out a suitable rental for the arena.

This last one is worth jotting down. Game times have been changed to fit in with the new Friday night opening of stores.

In future all Friday games will commence at 8:30 to give the late shoppers a chance to hurry home with the weekend bacon before taking their seats in the arena.

Back to summer activities for the wrap-up.

The Senior Men's Softball loop is looking for a few men in black to rule the diamond with an iron hand and leathery voice.

If you know the rules and have a secret yen to stand out out there and holler "Steerike", now's your chance.

Phone 4392 during the day or 6666 in the evenings and you'll find signing easier than persuading your wife she looks tremendous in the sack.

Dusty Pounds Late Homer for Phoenix

By WARD SIMS
Associated Press Staff Writer

Dusty Rhodes, the same guy who sparked New York Giants to their 1954 World Series conquest of Cleveland, showed the kids last night how the veterans win games.

The powerful Rhodes smashed out a ninth-inning homer with two mates aboard to give the Pacific Coast League-leading Phoenix Giants a 5-3, come-from-behind victory over Seattle.

With the victory the Giants moved into a two-game lead over second place Vancouver Mounties, who blew a 7-1 lead in losing 10-8 to the Portland Beavers.

In other games, the Salt Lake City Bees took Sacramento Solons for a 9-1 side and Spokane Indians rattled San Diego 5-2.

The Giants went into the ninth trailing 5-3. After two were out, Curt Barclay reached first on an error. He scored on singles by Felipe Alou and Andre Rodgers, and they came in on Rhodes' clout.

Seattle's big innings was the third. The Rainiers got three runs on two walks, Jim Dyck's triple to left field and an error.

The Mounties piled up seven runs in the first three innings against Portland while the Beavers were struggling to get one, but after that it was Katy bar the door as the Bees came back with singles in the fourth and fifth, four in the sixth and three in the seventh.

Two of the final three runs came on Wilky Moore's home run. Ray Barker got a bases-empty homer in Vancouver's seventh. Bill Henry, who came on for Portland in the sixth and held the Mounties to two hits the rest of the way, was the winner.

The Bees got nine hits in whipping the Solons, who chipped in four errors to help Salt Lake City along. Don Urquhart kept his record spotless at 5-0 in limiting the Solons to five hits.

The Bees' big inning was the sixth. They got four runs on only two hits, Dick Stuart's double and Jim McDaniel's two-run homer.

The Indians parlayed six straight singles into four runs in the first inning and that was enough to carry them to their decision over San Diego. Connie Grob won it, holding the Pads to six hits in working the distance.

Spokane's fifth run came on Bob Jenkins' solo homer in the fifth. The Padres got their two runs in the first on an error, Fred Hatfield's double and Eddie Kpazak's single.

Tigers Suffer As Kuenn Gets Hurt

BY THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

What more can happen to Detroit Tigers. Wednesday night, Harvey Kuenn, their leading hitter, was injured and they've fallen back into the American League cellar.

The onetime all-star shortstop, who has switched successfully to center field this season, was crushed near his right eye when he crashed into the wire fence in Baltimore on a futile try for a home-run ball that gave the Orioles a 6-4 victory and put the Tigers in eighth spot.

Kuenn, 27, leading the injury-hobbled Tigers with a .341 batting average, underwent plastic surgery. His eye appeared to escape injury, but a doctor declined to say whether Kuenn would play tonight.

BEAT YANKEES

Chicago White Sox, meanwhile, beat New York Yankees 7-2. Second-place Kansas City, 7½ games behind the Yankees, defeated Washington 5-4, and Cleveland beat Boston 7-5 in 10 innings.

Gus Triandos, who drove in three runs, wrapped it up for the Orioles with his ninth homer in the seventh after Kuenn had broken a 3-1 tie with a solo home run, his fourth, in the sixth inning.

Frank Lary, 5-5, was the loser. George Zuverink won his first, in relief.

Southpaw Billy Pierce pitched a five-hitter against the Yankees and fanned six to wrest the strikeout lead from New York's Bob Turley, 35 to 33. Pierce also doubled in a two-run third WESTERN CANADA'S GOLFING pride and joy, Stan Leonard of Vancouver, will team with Toronto's Al Balding next week to give Okanagan golf fans a show such as they have never seen in the Valley before. Leonard and Balding are generally recognized to be the top two golf professionals in the country. They will be playing in Penticton on Thursday, June 12, as part of their five-match British Columbia tour.

PLAY HERE JUNE 12

Fans Eagerly Await Leonard and Balding

Sportsmen from all over B.C. are anxiously licking their lips in anticipation of the forthcoming Stan Leonard - Al Balding golf tour - which has appropriately been called "Lucky's Tour of Champions."

The five city B.C. tour, beginning in Kamloops Tuesday, June 10, and continuing to Kelowna, June 11, Penticton June 12, Victoria's Gorge Golf Club June 13 and Vancouver's Marine Drive course June 14, presents an almost natural East-West setting.

Further, Lucky Lager Breweries - in agreeing to turn over all profits to Gyro Club charities - have affected an affiliation which carries great public appeal.

TO SETTLE DISPUTE Leonard and Balding are being brought together on five different golf courses to settle a coast-to-coast Canadian dispute which has been a hot one for the past three years.

It was that long ago when Balding, an almost unknown Toronto boy, hit the American Golf Trail circuit with a bang and won the $10,000 Sanford (Florida) Open. He became the first Canadian ever to win a professional golf tournament on American soil - and for the first time in 15 years, Eastern sportsmen had an answer to the almost insurmountable reputation Leonard had built for himself.

Shortly after his American conquest, Balding won the Canadian PGA title. Leonard, a five-time winner of the crown, did not defend in 1956 and a long awaited opportunity for comparison had been lost.

SUCCESSFUL INVASION

Last summer, Balding continued his successful invasion of the U.S. PGA circuit. He won the Miami Beach Open and was second in the $20,000 San Diego Open. His was not a fly-by-night invasion, either, because he wound up the 1957 season as the 10th leading money winner in the U.S. PGA listings.

However, late in the summer, the 1957 Canadian PGA tournament appeared and Leonard was one of the first to enter. This time, Balding couldn't make it and Stan became the 1957 champion. The public went on comparing Leonard against Balding, but the most factual basis of settling the argument, an actual meeting between the two, hasn't been arranged until now.

Stan feathered his followers' nests, by achieving the virtually impossible. Last October he won the $15,000 Greater Greensboro Open, and thereby became an automatic invitee to the 1958 Tournament of Champions in Las Vegas.

Just one month ago, 22 PGA champions lined up on the Desert Inn course in Las Vegas to shoot for Wilber Clark's $25,000 in prizes, and share in the "side bets" which annually accompany the colorful extravaganza.

WON BY A STROKE

Leonard won it all by one stroke. He became the champion of all champions. He beat Billy Casper, Ken Venturi, Arnold Palmer, Jimmy Demaret, Mike Souchak, George Bayer, Doug Ford and Dow Finsterwald. He won $10,000 in prize money, and the man who held Stan's ticket in the Calcutta Pool (worth $95,000) chucked in another 10-grand.

It was more than a mere victory over the almighty buck, though. It put Canada front and centre on the world's golf maps.

Through Leonard and Balding, it has been proven that golf in Canada is not a backwoods invention played only by retired millionaires and off-duty insurance salesmen.

A last day crowd of 15,000 watched Leonard line an 18-inch putt into the hole in his Las Vegas victory. An actual turnstile count of 21,000 people was recorded at Augusta, Georgia, when Stan finished on the 18th green in fourth place in the Masters Tournament last April.

Professional golf has become a major league in sporting circles because the golfer has learned that he cannot live without public support. These are colorful shows which are put on by the PGA, and the Leonard - Balding tour will display all the finer points in crowd appeal when it comes your way.

Voters Approve Stadium Site; Podres Shakes Losing Streak

By THE ASSOCIATED PRESS

Things haven't looked this good for the Los Angeles Dodgers in a long, long time. They've gained voter approval for the Chavez Ravine deal, Johnny Podres has juked his four-game slump with a three-hit shutout and those crowd-collecting Milwaukee Braves are coming to town.

The Dodgers are still in the National League cellar, but it's only a 4½-game spread to third place after Wednesday night's 3-0 job on Cincinnati. It was the first shutout hung up in the Coliseum, with its cozy corners in left field.

The Braves, again drawing a near-capacity crowd, moved into a one-game lead over second place San Francisco by beating the Giants 10-9 in 11 innings. St. Louis whipped Pittsburgh 6-3 and gained a virtual tie for fourth place with Chicago. The Cubs bombed Philadelphia again 11-5 with Ernie Banks belting his 15th and 16th homers, high in the majors.

SPAHN CLINCHES IT Charley Neal drove in two dodger runs with a 420-foot triple and a solo homer. Podres, now 5-4, breezed, meanwhile, twice retiring 11 in a row and no-hitting the Redlegs over the last 4½ innings.

A pinch-hit single by pitcher Warren Spahn clinched it for the Braves off losing reliever Stu Miller 1-3. Down 7-1 after three, they tied it 7-all in the ninth as Wes Covington belted a three-run homer on the first pitch from reliever Pete Burnside—who was sold to Phoenix a few hours later. The two clubs swapped two-run spurts in the 10th.

Stan Musial hit his 10th homer and Ken Boyer rapped a two-run, inside-the-park homer for the Cards against Ron Kline, 6-5. Jim Brosnan, 6-4, won his third straight. He gave seven hits, three by Frank Thomas, who hit his 14th home run.

Both of Banks' home runs came with a man on for the Cubs, his second an inside-the-park belt as the Phil's Richie Ashburn crashed into the centre field wall. Moe Drabowsky won his third with a 10-hitter, including two-run homers by Solly Hemus and Rip Repulski, while Robin Roberts lost his sixth in 11 decisions.

Sour Cream Finger Rolls

1. Scald ½ pint (1½ cups) commercial sour cream. Stir in 3 tablespoons granulated sugar, 1 teaspoon salt, 1 tablespoon butter or margarine. Cool to lukewarm.

2. Meanwhile, measure into large bowl ½ cup lukewarm water. Stir in 1 teaspoon granulated sugar. Sprinkle with contents of 1 envelope Fleischmann's Active Dry Yeast. Let stand 10 minutes, THEN stir well.

3. Stir in ½ teaspoon baking soda. Into lukewarm sour cream mixture, then stir mixture into yeast. Stir in 1½ cups once-sifted all-purpose flour.

and beat until smooth and elastic. Work in an additional 1½ cups (about) once-sifted all-purpose flour.

3. Turn out on floured board and knead until smooth and elastic. Place in greased bowl. Grease top. Cover. Let rise in a warm place, free from draft, until doubled in bulk—about ¾ hour.

4. Punch down dough. Turn out on lightly-floured board and knead until smooth. Divide dough into 3 equal portions, shape each portion into a 12-inch roll and cut into 12 equal pieces. Shape each piece of dough into a roll about 3 inches long. Arrange, about an inch apart, on greased cookie sheet. Grease tops. Cover. Let rise until doubled in bulk—about 40 minutes. Bake in a hot oven, 400°, about 14 minutes. Yield—3 dozen finger rolls.

Voters Give Okay To O'Malley Plan

By CHARLES MAHER
LOS ANGELES (AP) — Walter O'Malley is still erect after the latest effort to yank the Southern California baseball team from under his Dodgers baseball team, but his equilibrium may be submitted to still further tests.

City voters decided in a referendum election Tuesday to let O'Malley build a luxurious new stadium for the Dodgers in Chavez Ravine, a mile from the heart of downtown Los Angeles.

Latest returns today showed 176,005 votes in favor of giving the Dodgers the stadium site and 159,028 against. The trend was not expected to change.

The results mean O'Malley may get his athletes out of their makeshift playground at Memorial Coliseum some time during the 1959 season — if the chubby baseball impresario from Brooklyn can vault a few more hurdles.

Many Surprises in NHL Draft Round

By W. R. WHEATLEY
Canadian Press Staff Writer
MONTREAL (CP)—New York Rangers lost five players Wednesday in the National Hockey League intra-league draft and one of them caused unexpected complications in a wholesale shift that was supposed to involve three clubs.

The Rangers got roped in unwittingly and now may be able to call the turn or get their player back — defenceman Jack Evans. Detroit Red Wings can also mess up things, but except for the weird business about Evans all sales or other disposals still stand.

Ten players in all were drafted by NHL clubs from one another. The NHL owners met with players' representatives and the closed meeting produced the first signed agreement between the owner-player group.

OLMSTEAD TO LEAFS
The big shift of players, with a few under-the-table agreements, began Tuesday.

It was announced that defenceman Dollard St. Laurent of Montreal Canadiens had been sold to Chicago Black Hawks. That part was all right.

It was also announced that left-winger Bert Olmstead of Montreal had been sold to Toronto Maple Leafs. It turned out that Olmstead was drafted by the Leafs at Wednesday's meeting.

The next step was the sale of winger Tod Sloan by Toronto to Chicago. A Montreal farm hand, centre Gerry Wilson, also went to the Leafs. Wilson is a former Canadiens junior player and had been assigned to Winnipeg of the Western Hockey League.

In return for the welcome help, Chicago was ready to assign a defenceman to Montreal who sooner or later would be sent to Rochester of the American Hockey League.

The Hawks got their swamping material in Evans. But two complications quickly arose. The Hawks can't sell Evans to Montreal without getting waivers on him from the other NHL clubs.

Also, somebody may want Evans on waivers.

SOMEONE GOOFED
Under the whole arrangement it looks as if somebody goofed by forgetting that Evans would still be subject to waivers.

Detroit Red Wings meanwhile had lost defenceman Al Arbour to Chicago in the draft and were

British Track Veteran Blasts Emphasis on Records at Meets

By PETER BUCKLEY

Canadian Press Staff Writer

VANCOUVER (CP)—A veteran of international track and field competition has taken sections of the sporting fraternity to task for what he calls excessive stress on record-breaking and not enough on sheer, man-to-man competition.

Jack Crump, who celebrated his 55th birthday Wednesday by bringing a four-man British track team here for the British Columbia centennial games, defended at the same time the international rule against pacers.

On the first subject, Crump said: "People have gone absolutely record mad. They won't turn out unless there's promise of a record."

HUMAN RABBIT
He was even less kind about having a person set a fast pace deliberately to provoke a record or near-record time: "You might just as well use an electric rabbit, and have the runner chase it."

Crump, backed by 30 years in track and field and four Olympic managing jobs for Britain, sounded off at an informal press conference.

He was representing Britain's team here: Derek Ibbotson, whose as yet unofficial time of 3:57.2 in the mile is the world's fastest; Dr. John Wrighton, Michael Farrell and George Knight.

Also at the press conference were members of the first track team from a Communist nation ever to compete in Canada. Poland's best runners were friendly and outspoken, answering questions readily on their personal backgrounds and their feelings toward sport.

FIRST TRIP
Spokesman for the group — by virtue of a hesitant command of school English — was Stefan Lewandowski, 27-year-old surgeon from Stetin, near the Polish-German frontier, and an entry in the mile.

Others were team manager Jan Mullak; sprinter Marian Folk 23; 880-yard runner Zbigniew Mokomski, 25, and three-mile Zdzislaw Mrzyzyszkowski, 28.

Frequent competitors in Western Europe, where they had met Crump before, it was their first trip to North America. "We hope it won't be the last," Lewandowski said.

Lewandowski said he agreed — and then perhaps drop out himself — with Crump, that the quest for records is overemphasized.

On the subject of pacing, Crump said that newspaper reports to the contrary, Ibbotson was not paced in his 3:57.2 mile. "I know it will be recognized."

"But on the international rule regarding pacing, I think it is a very sound one."

"I believe pacing is wholly artificial. With pacing, the race is no longer between two runners as individuals but between some man out to push another to the limit in the first part of the race."

Folk, who has done a 9.4 in the 100-yard dash, is expected to provide stiff competition in Friday night's opening games against such sprinters as Lieut. Ken Kave of the U.S. Army, Trinidad's Mike Agostini and Keith Gardner of Jamaica.

TEMPER TANTRUM

After pampering Billy Loes for two years, manager Paul Richards of the Baltimore Orioles, has finally lowered the boom on the eccentric right-hander. An indefinite suspension and a $100 fine were handed Loes, seen at left, after his latest temper tantrum caused him to be ejected from game with Washington in Baltimore. In a heated argument over a call at the plate, Loes is alleged to have pushed umpire Larry Napp. The 28-year-old hurler said he would appeal the suspension to baseball commissioner Ford Frick because he was being deprived of making a living.

Fullmer Loses Big-Time Debut

WEST JORDAN, Utah (AP) — Joe Miceli gave young welterweight Jay Fullmer a rude welcome to big-time boxing Wednesday night, scoring an automatic third-round knockout.

Miceli weighed 147 to Fullmer's 140. It was the first time former middleweight champion Gene Fullmer's 21-year-old brother had lost in his 14 professional starts.

MEN'S SOFTBALL

League-leading Penticton Marshall's extended Legion to a full nine innings in Men's Softball League play at Kiwanis Park last night before dropping a 10-9 decision.

Two double plays by each club were a highlight of the hard-fought encounter. Legion grabbed the lead in the opening frame and held on grimly throughout the game.

Joe Leminski got credit for the win and Marshall took the loss. Legion first sacker Anderson pulled Leminski out of a big hole in the ninth inning by spearing what appeared to be a sure hit and turning it into a snappy double play.

Sport Shop Winners in BR Slugfest

A pair of seven-run innings gave Sport Shop the margin they needed for an 18-12 win over Clarke's Building Supply in a Babe Ruth League baseball game last night.

Clarke's started off on the right foot with a six-run barrage of their own in the second inning, but they failed to keep up the pace. Sport Shop scored seven times in their half of the second inning and counted another seven runs the next inning.

Winning pitcher was Bob Lemm, while Danny Coe was tagged with the loss.

In Little League play, the powerful Elks took an easy 20-2 decision over Lions behind the stout hurling of Allan Burtart. Losing pitcher was Ken Caruso.

Little League pool action saw Buicks come from behind a 9-5 deficit to take a narrow win over Fords.

Interior Warm Air and Kinsmen play in Little League tonight.

'Eversfield Story' Continues Monday

By H. L. JONES
Canadian Press Staff Writer

VANCOUVER (CP)—The "Eversfield story" continues Monday in the Assize Court bribery-conspiracy trial involving former lands and forests minister Robert Sommers and his actions and associations while a member of the provincial cabinet.

In the witness box will be 46-year-old accountant Charles Eversfield, around whom the Crown has built its 38-count indictment charging undercover dealings in connection with issuance of forest management licences.

Sommers, who resigned his portfolio in 1956 but still is a member of the legislature, is the central figure in the case. Also charged are H. W. Gray, John Gray, Charles D. Schultz, the C. D. Schultz Company Limited, Pacific Coast Services, Evergreen Lumber Sales and B.C. Forest Products.

For 10 days the short, stocky Eversfield has withstood the detailed questioning of a battery of six defence lawyers attempting to find chinks in his testimony about alleged splitting of funds between Gray and Schultz. The Crown is backing up its case with more than 200 documents Eversfield took from Pacific files when he left his bookkeeper's job with the firm in 1955.

Often to the embarrassment of counsel, Eversfield has—before anyone could stop him—gone far beyond the normal positive or negative answers to questions with "explanations" and "qualifications." In the words of one defence counsel he has been "like

WEDNESDAY his testimony concerned mainly how money was transferred from the Pacific account through the personal accounts of H. W. and John Gray and into the Evergreen account. The Crown claims this latter was a "dormant" account used mainly to pass money to Sommers.

Under cross examination by John Gray's counsel, E. E. Hinkson, Eversfield said "in all probability" John Gray knew the alleged purpose to which his personal bank account was being put. He could not recall John Gray ever having objected to such transfers "but I wouldn't say that he didn't."

At another point when a hot legal argument arose over admissibility of a photostat of a document, Eversfield said he still had in his possession, assistant prosecutor Stewart McMorran asked him about the whereabouts of the original.

Eversfield—to the surprise of even the prosecutor—coolly explained that it was in the hands of the RCMP, the police agency to whom he had turned over his documents, and which had seized others from the offices of other accused firms.

WASHINGTON (AP)—A man who was wrongly committed to a mental institution and discharged from the United States Marines because he was mistaken for an insane man with the same name has been given something for his troubles.

The U.S. Court of Claims Wednesday awarded John J. Egan $5,963.16 as part of the pay he lost as a Marine Corps captain during the years he was mistakenly held in the mental hospital.

Egan's attempts to prove his sanity began 16 years ago, court testimony showed, when he was tabbed as insane after he subdued a violent Marine hospital patient who had attacked another patient. Witnesses to the incident deny it ever happened, and Egan was placed in a locked ward.

U.K. Labor Leaders Air Three Strikes

LONDON (Reuters)—Leaders of Britain's biggest single labor union met today to consider three strikes hitting London's food supplies and transportation.

Nearly 20,000 dock workers are on strike, along with 50,000 London bus workers and 8,000 meat handlers and drivers.

The strikers are members of the 1,300,000-strong Transport and General Workers Union. Only the bus drivers have union sanction for their wage stoppage.

Fresh efforts were made to get the big red double-deck buses back on the streets. Strike leader Frank Cousins held talks with Sir John Elliot, chairman of London Transport, following the refusal of national union leaders to approve spreading the bus stoppage to power stations and gasoline supplies.

Meanwhile, the dock strike, indirectly connected with the six-week-old meat strike, spread. The London dock labor board said 19,284 of the 28,000 London dock workers were idle, leaving 118 ships unattended.

A Port of London spokesman said about 25,000 tons of perishable foodstuffs on the ships are threatened.

RIPLEY'S BELIEVE IT OR NOT

Advocates More Cultural Exchange

By BOB THOMAS
HOLLYWOOD (AP)—Sol Hurok, who qualifies as the John Foster Dulles of show business, came to town plumping for more cultural exchange with Russia.
"The more we exchange artists with the Communists, the better our chances for peace," said the bullet-shaped impresario. "The success of the cultural exchange proves that John Smith and Ivan Spanovich are interested in friendship."
Hurok is the No. 1 man in the new program. At present he is sponsoring the United States tour of the sensational Moiseyev dance troupe. He has sent or is sending his own artists to Russia for tours—such names as Marian Anderson, Jan Peerce, Leonard Warren, Isaac Stern, Roberta Peters and Nathan Milstein.

"The reception of our performers there is just as sensational as the reaction to the Moiseyev dancers," Hurok declared. "It is a great thing for both countries."
There can be no doubt of the success of the Moiseyev company. It will play to a half-million customers in an 11-week tour, and there is no evidence of any empty seat at any performance.

COULD RUN FOR YEARS
"We could run for six months at the Madison Square Garden—three years in a regular New York theatre," Hurok says.
Hurok has more Russian delights up his voluminous sleeve. On Nov. 5, he brings the Berliozka company of 65 women dancers to New York's Broadway Theatre. He is also importing a noted pianist, violinist and leader singer from Russia and next spring will see the invasion of the great Bolshoi Ballet.
The Russian-born Hurok, who arrived at Ellis Island in 1906 with a $1.50 stake, has journeyed to his native land four times in the last year to book talent. With his fine eye for potential attractions, he can spot stars that the Russians have underestimated.

HOUSEHOLD HINT
You can make your own padded hangers to prevent creases in silk or crepe dresses. Just sew old shoulder pads around the ends of the hanger.

The bidding:
South West North East
1st Pass 2nd Pass
3rd Pass 4th Pass
5th Pass 6th Pass

Opening lead — jack of diamonds.

By confronting declarer, South finds himself in a six notrump contract and can be certain of twelve tricks — provided he knows whether to finesse East or West for the queen of clubs.

The diamond lead is taken in dummy and South's entire attention is devoted to the task of locating the club queen. He has little to go on at this point — only the meager information furnished by the first trick.

The ace of hearts is cashed as step number one in the campaign to learn as much as possible of the defenders' hands. A low heart is next led from dummy, deliberately losing at once a trick which would in any case eventually have to be lost.

West wins the heart and returns a diamond. Dummy wins and cashes the king of hearts. When both opponents follow suit, the eight of hearts is cashed, declarer discarding a low club.
Three rounds of spades are led and the king of diamonds is cashed, dummy discarding a club. By now ten tricks have been played. Dummy and declarer each have three clubs. The critical point is at hand.

If declarer has kept track of everything that has happened there is no question how the clubs should be played. The contract has become an absolute certainty.

West is known to have been dealt six diamonds since East failed to follow to the third round of diamonds. West also has shown up with three spades and three hearts. Twelve of his thirteen cards are thus accounted for.

West's hand originally, therefore, could not have contained more than one club.
Accordingly, a club is led to the king. West follows suit. His entire hand is known also. He must have been dealt Q-x-x-x of clubs since West dealt a singleton club.

So a club is led from dummy and the proven finesse is taken. As expected, it succeeds.
Bridge is a scientific game.

Tomorrow: The rebid by the responding hand.

Northwest Mineral Potential Outlined

EDMONTON (CP)—Two federal government geologists said Wednesday that the known or partly-known mineral deposits in the Canadian northwest are "far outweighed by the potential for additional discoveries."
While transportation and climate may hamper northern production, the paper said, "another vital consideration is that few of the deposits known in the northwest are sufficiently unique to cause attention to be given them in preference to better-situated ones."
Other mineral deposits in the area were known to contain "fairly large amounts of material too low in grade to be mined economically at present. Many mineral occurrences not yet fully tested 'will probably be shown to have value,' they said.
In a paper read to the Royal Society of Canada, A. H. Lang and R. J. W. Douglas of the Geological Survey of Canada referred to established northern mines and the Norman Wells oil field as the most obvious favorable factors for further development.

CULTURAL MISSION TO JAPAN

Mrs. Helen Tucker, left, will lead a UNESCO party of 30 Canadians across Canada on a cultural mission to Japan early in July. An alternate delegate to UNESCO, Mrs. Tucker is shown with Dr. F. B. Rainsberry and Mrs. Margaret Ashdown, all of Toronto. During their month-long stay in Japan, the group will try to see all aspects of the country's cultural life.

Red Sputnik Data May be Available

BRUSSELS (Reuters) — Scientific data obtained by the three Soviet Sputniks may be revealed in Moscow in August, an International Geophysical Year official said here today.

British Admiral Sir Archibald Day, co-ordinator of the IGY, said one of the main purposes of the August meeting there "will be to decide what information about satellites is to be published in the IGY annals."

He added that "doubtless the Russians will tell us what they are publishing in their 'open' scientific journals as well."

GOOD REPORTS

The IGY, actually an 18-month international venture of co-operation among more than 60 countries to study the earth and the space around it, started last July 1. It will end Dec. 31.

Day said that both the Russians who have launched three big satellites in the last eight months, and the Americans, who have three smaller ones aloft, have given the IGY "good preliminary reports, but we are waiting now for the detailed results which, of course, take time to process."

"Generally speaking, however, the Americans draw quicker conclusions about the experiments than the Russians, who are very guarded in what they claim."

The British assistant IGY co-ordinator, Air Vice-Marshal J. W. Merer, said that "both Russians and Americans have so far been very exact in fulfilling the regulations laid down for the communication of data on earth satellites."

He said IGY headquarters normally is notified of a new satellite two hours after the launching. He said the lateness of the latest Soviet notification — two days after Sputnik III was launched May 15 — was apparently "in telegraph delays from Moscow."

Merer said neither Russia nor the U.S. has sent the IGY detailed information on space conditions reported by the satellite radios because the data takes a long time to digest and interpret. "No resounding scientific results" were likely to be obtained

Stranger Solves Boy's Problem

CALGARY (CP) — Terry Graham, 11, had his troubles solved by a stranger who left $21 for him at a newspaper office. The money replaces two bills Terry accidentally burned in an incinerator.

Ashes from that fire now are being studied by experts of the Bank of Canada in Ottawa. If the ashes show traces of the bills, the money will be repaid to Terry's parents, residents of nearby Bow-nest.

Terry accidentally threw the grocery money, a $20 and $1 bill sealed in an envelope, into an incinerator while helping his mother clean house.

Upset about the whole thing, he volunteered to scrub floors and do house chores until he collected enough money to pay his mother back. By Wednesday night he had saved $2.32 from the pennies and nickels his parents paid him.

An unidentified stranger left $21 at the newspaper office and said: "Just see that the boy gets it."

Mrs. Graham refused at first to accept the gift but later took it. The Grahams have seven children.

"We're all a mighty happy family now," she said, "especially when I understand there's not much chance of getting our original money back."

Scores Immature Approach to Study Of U.S. History

EDMONTON (CP) — Canadian universities are taking an "immature" approach to the study of American history, Dr. Wallace D. Farnham, professor of history at the University of Alberta, said today.

Dr. Farnham told the annual meeting of the Canadian Historical Association there are only two full-time teachers of American history in Canada. Most university history departments offer at least one course in U.S. history, but enrolment in courses is small. Libraries give it "perfunctory treatment."

SENATOR BAIRD DECLARES

Canadians Don't Live Within Their Means

OTTAWA (CP)—Canadians are losing their ancestral trait of living within their means, says Liberal Senator A. B. Baird of Newfoundland.

They are attempting to keep up the Joneses and the federal government, too, has embarked on a program of deficit budgeting alien to the Canadian way, the senator warned in the upper chamber Wednesday.

Futting off paying debts was a sure way to "future grief."

In the Commons, CCF House Leader Hazen Argue urged deficiency payments on Western grain. Rejection of the demands by farm groups would erode the west's goodwill for the government, he said.

APPROVE MONEY SUPPLY

The Commons, which today deals with private members' proposals, approved a vote of $624,500,000 in interim money supply for the government to cover its June and July operations.

At the start of the day's sitting, Prime Minister Diefenbaker told questioners the government has made no final agreement with Saskatchewan on the proposed $180,000,000 South Saskatchewan River dam, nor has it given favorable consideration to the province's request for a loan towards provincial power development on the project.

Senator Baird said he was shocked that the government is "deliberately" proposing to budget for a deficit. The only way to cut taxes was to reduce the cost of government. But there was no sign the government was sincerely trying to do that.

He said labor unions are seeking wage increases regardless of the current recession. Higher production costs had almost priced Canada out of the export business.

SUPPORTS PROPOSALS

Mr. Argue expressed support for two major Western farm organizations which have asked for

Charged in Stabbing Case

KAMLOOPS (CP) — A man believed from the Prince George area has been charged with stabbing a North Kamloops woman who ordered a prowler from her home early Wednesday.

Peter Tylee, about 23, was remanded to June 11 when he appeared in police court charged with stabbing Mrs. Henrietta Donnelly with a pen knife.

She was reported in good condition in hospital.

Police said the woman was awakened by a noise in her kitchen. She was stabbed when she confronted the prowler and ordered him out.

NEW LEADER

An impressive first ballot majority gave leadership of the Quebec Liberal party to Hon. Jean Lesage, above, former federal minister of northern affairs and natural resources. Retiring leader Georges-Emile Lapalme will remain as legislature opposition leader until the next general election.

Mr. Lesage, who will resign his federal seat soon, will seek to unite the divided Liberal party and end the Union-Nationale regime, led by Premier Duplessis.

Nun Released To Marry Long Missing Lover

FLORENCE, Italy (AP)—This is the story of a man who returned from the dead and a nun who obtained the Pope's permission to marry him.

It started 20 years ago in the central Italian hill town of Falciano, near Arezzo, south of Florence. Alba Guidotti, a pretty girl of 15, and Rinaldo Matesini, 16, became engaged.

A year later, in 1939, war came. Rinaldo was called to arms, and before he could wed Alba he was sent off to Greece.

Word came in a few months that Rinaldo was dead. Alba, grief-stricken, entered a nearby Roman Catholic convent and took the vows of a cloistered Benedictine nun.

Rinaldo, however, was not dead. Wounded, he was shuttled from hospital to hospital. Not until 1946 did he return to the Arezzo hill country to learn Alba had entered a convent.

Eventually he arranged to meet her in the presence of the mother superior of the convent. Alba decided to ask to be released from her vows.

GETS PAPAL RELEASE
Ten years later, last November, came the word that Pope Pius had granted her the release. It was a long time to wait, but the church considers such dispensation a grave matter requiring the fullest study.

A month ago Alba and Rinaldo were married in the Falciano parish church. Early this week their story became known to Italian newspapers, and today church authorities confirmed that the wedding had the blessing of the Holy See.

Big Increase In Real Estate Transactions

NEW WESTMINSTER, B. C. (CP)—Real estate transactions have jumped 34 per cent over last year to a record value of $34,245,114, A. A. Milledge, registrar of titles reported Wednesday.

Included in the transactions are applications to register transfers, agreement of sale and mortgages of real estate. Not included are millions of dollars in trust deeds securing industrial bond issues.

Subdivision plans from all sections of the lower Fraser Valley, especially in Surrey, Richmond, Delta, Coquitlam and Chilliwack districts, are keeping Mr. Milledge's staff working overtime.

A total of 19,442 transactions have taken place in the first five months of 1958 compared to 14,483 worth $39,352,974 in the same period last year.
